WILL HAVE A BOT TIME Wichita Wheelmen to Celebrate the Fourti

The Wichita Wheelmen will celebrate the Fourth by giving the grandest cel-ebration given in Wichita for a long time. Everybody knows that when the Wichita Wheelmen start out to do anything they always eclipse former records and on this occasion they ex-pect to outdo any celebration in the Sanction has been received for an L. A. W. race meet and the Fourth will be put down in history as not only the freedom day of America but the opening of the new one-third mile bley cle track by some of the best bleycle races ever given in the state. There will be six bleycle races in all; a full program of which will be published in-The Fair association are in with boys and will give a number of first class horse races by some of the best horses in the state, that are now in training at the track. One of the big attractions will be he double balloon ascension or race to the clouds by two monster balloons. A number of high grade bicycles will be given away, every one going in the gate getting a cou-pon for the same. The drawing will be done by a committee selected from the crowd.

All in all this celebration promises to excel anything of the kind ever given

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

The farewell concert to be given at Seigwick Music hall on Tuesday even-ing, June 23, by Mrs. W. S. Bracken, as-sisted by Mrs. Whiteside of Hutchinson, Misses Neiderlander and Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Smyth, will be the the program to please all music loving good races conducted in a gentlemanly people. Several of the numbers are those rendered at the state musical contest. This will be Mrs. Bracken's last appearance in Wichita and she is especially anxious to give a concert that will leave for her a pleasant re-membrance in the minds of her Wichita friends. The business management is in the hands of the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church OUIJA PARTY.

There will be given under the auspices of the L. A. S. No. 46, on next Tuesday of the L. A. C. which friends of the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. S. and the charming girls of the L. A. C. E. PEAIRS. the public generally are invited. Come one and all, old and young, and consult the infallible "Oulja." It guarantees to the bashful swain a sweetheart, and to the shy, coy maiden, a lover, devoted and true during the ice cream season. There will be pitched upon the lawn an East India "tepee," presided over by dark eyed orientials, imported for this special occasion, who will reveal to you the hidden mysteries of the past, present and future. The evening will be one of rare amusement. Don't fast to attend and "that tired feeling" will be relieved by music and song, and "that long felt want" will be filled with "an-long felt w gel food" and delicious cream. Don't forget the time and place.

Pony race-Half mile dash.

The intervals will be filled by music by Neff's Second Regiment band, mak-ing it a regular feast to the musical inclined. The combination of whispering deaves, soft strains of music, silver mosnlight, gentle breezes, and the dimpling, shimmering waters of the Little Arkansus river just at hand in-sures a large attendance to see a gentleman's race conducted in a gentleman, ly manner. The ladies are especially in-vited and will be admitted free. Refreshments will be obtainable of Friz-

AT THE AUDITORIUM. The Criterion Dramatic Company pre sented a "Fight for a Fortune" at the Auditorium last night to a very farge and appreciative audience. Sidney S. Toler in the role of "Chuckies" did superlative cream or glass of soda, some very the acting and made himself phate or lemonade will, p. q. Try even more popular than ever. Sid showed his ability in many lightning changes. Mr. Toler and Miss Edith Bowers in their specialty made a blu-hit. Mr. Ed P. Bowers as the "Dude" kept the audience in a perfect uproar. Mr. Rowers is a very clever comedian and everybody is perfectly delighted with his comical and local hits. Mr. Curtis and Miss Semons, who played here with the Ten Tens at the opera house for the last two weeks, were engaged by Manager Reiss to strengthed his show for next week and give the Wichita people one of the best 10 cent attractions that they have ever had The company will open in that penu-lar comedy drama, "Phoenix," Mon-day night. Reserved seats can be obtained at Bitting Bros, store any time after 9 o'clock Monday morning.
